

Northern Ireland's Riding Clubs Summer Camp 27th - 30th July 2011

The Riding Clubs Summer Camp will take place this year earlier from the 27th to 30th July. As for the past few years, camp will be held this year in Necarne Castle, the Ulster Lakelands Premier Equine Facility. The camp is aimed at those riding club members who wish to develop their riding skills, both on the flat and over fences, and who wish to take opportunity of the excellent facilities, and the regular trainers, Margie Lowry and Tim Downes FBHS to further improve their horses training. Tuition is in small groups, with the main focus being to develop greater harmony between horse and rider. Apart from the excellent educational benefits of the camp, members enjoy a fun weekend of socializing with like minded people, the weekend promises a bar-b-que, a meal out, a sing song and much general merriment!

Full Camp - £295

The full camp includes your accommodation and all meals except, dinner on Saturday night, no lunch Thursday. All riders' tuition. Horses stable and bedding, bring your own hard feed and hay. Tea, coffee and buns will be available all day.

Daily Camp £160

Daily camp includes all riders' tuition and lunches except lunch on Thursday. Tea, coffee and buns will be available all day. If a stable is required for overnight accommodation it will be charged at £12 per night.
